The Junior League of Montgomery

is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.

The Junior League of Montgomery encourages a diverse membership and reaches out to women of all races, religions and national origins who demonstrate an interest in and commitment to voluntarism.

The Junior League of Montgomery is affiliated with the Association of Junior Leagues International, Inc.— an international organization of 292 Leagues with more than 200,000 members. Since 1926 the Junior League of Montgomery has given millions of volunteer service hours to the community.

League Logs Magazine

is published twice a year— with 4000 copies produced in January and again in July. Circulation includes Junior League members, community leaders, corporations, individuals, medical offices and many more.

Through feature stories and interviews, League Logs reports on League activities and critical issues facing our community. Areas where Junior League volunteer service impacts the community include education, health, family support and preservation, poverty intervention, violence intervention, cultural enrichment and support of community resources.

JLM's Community Impact

since its inception in 1926, has amounted to millions of dollars awarded to various organizations in the Montgomery community. The Junior League is unique in that each financial award is accompanied by volunteers. During the 2019-2020 League year, $94,000 in grant monies was distributed to eleven community partners.
